

The New Retirement Paradigm

Restyle- Don't Retire!

Retirement today means something completely different from even ten years ago. People today are working longer, finding new careers and enjoying their retirement years in a whole new way. The Restyle workshop is for people of all ages to begin planning or continue to plan for their retirement years- whenever they may be.

Christine D. Moriarty has worked with thousands of people to create financial peace of mind. As a financial educator, she has shared her insights on families and money in USA Today, Good Housekeeping, the Boston Globe, Better Homes and Gardens, Fidelity Focus Magazine and the LA Times and on NBC network affiliates.

"Christine gave us a chance to offer a wonderful benefit to all our employees- regardless of their title or position within the company. Her advice works for people of all income levels and financial involvement."

Carolyn Cooke, President/Founder of Isis

"Christine helped our employees better understand their financial picture while providing encouragement and real-life ideas for their financial future."

Kim Ravdin, Owner, Champlain Dental Lab

Christine will provide with you and your group with financial facts and financial philosophy so you will be ready for the new retirement. By framing the issues of today, retirement planning will be made easy. We will talk about the step by step plan to get to your new way of life. Most importantly, you will be educated on what to expect at every stage of retirement.

- Tailored sessions to your company or organization
- Resources to keep people thinking for the future with strategies for today
- On-going tips to help people live out the dreams they have for their retirement years.
- Better understanding about the options for retirement
- Decreased time spent at work dealing with financial matters
- Increased productivity on the job

For more information about scheduling a MoneyPeace session, contact Christine@MoneyPeace.com 888-449-8081 www.MoneyPeace.com